

Broad Talent Agency (Dallas)

Broad Talent grew out of the pandemic. The world is changing, the entertainment industry is changing. We want to be part of that change. As a company of women we wanted to create an agency that reflected how we wished we had been represented when we were artists. A safe, approachable environment where the artist feels valued. We want to lift up the new artist, the young artist and help them achieve their goals. We seek to represent talent that might not fit traditional boundaries. Between the 3 of us we have been involved in practically every aspect of the arts; theater, film, print, opera, live music in development, performance and creation. We are excited to bring our unique knowledge and talents to our clients. Broad Talent Website

Bankston Talent: (Dallas)

Bankston Talent Agency was established in the Fall of 2018 in Austin, Texas. The founder of BTA, Lilly Bankston, was previously an actor, who then jumped into being a sub-agent for a local agency for several years. When the opportunity presented itself, she decided to branch off and open up her own agency. About a year later, Bankston Talent opened up offices in Dallas, TX and Albuquerque, NM and gained its SAG-AFTRA Franchised status for both Texas and New Mexico in the Spring of 2020. Since then, BTA has obtained an additional agent, Kacey Royce, and both agents strive to bring as many opportunities for their actors as possible, in their main regional markets and beyond!
