

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Effective May 1, 2005, Producers will be charged a minimal payment of $425 to defray costs incurred by SAG-AFTRA in filing its security interest. SAG-AFTRA will deduct this amount from the security deposit at the time the balance of the account is returned to the Producer.

The following is a breakdown of the minimum costs incurred:

- |  |          |
|--|----------|
| a) One security agreement filing(with one debtor and one film title)at the United States Copyright Office:             | $ 80.00 |
| b) One UPS mailing to theUnited States Copyright Office:   | $ 7.82  |
| c) One UCC-1 filing @ California$5.00 electronic filing costplus $12.00 service provider fee:                        | $ 17.00 |
| d) Fifteen UCC continuation filings @ California$5.00 electronic filing cost each, plus $10.00service provider fee*: | $225.00 |
| e) One UCC amendment filing @ California$5.00 electronic filing cost plus $15.00service provider fee:                | $ 20.00 |
| f) One search of the United States CopyrightOffice In-Process library under one film title:                                | $ 75.00 |

The SAG-AFTRA security agreement and the letter that accompanies the security deposit monies each authorize Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists to deduct for these costs.

If you have any questions, please contact the Business Representative assigned to the project.