NATIONAL BOARD MEMBER / 4 YEAR TERM

VOTE FOR NO MORE THAN ONE (1)

01 / LOU SLOCUM

It's a challenging time to be a performer. High inflation, dwindling streaming residuals and AI erode our ability to earn a living wage. And some employers are asking us to record difficult or even dangerous actions while self-taping auditions. Hopefully, our new TV/Theatrical Contract will address these issues. Locally, we need to support each other, engage in regional independent productions and educational opportunities and keep honing our craft and business skills. I invite you to contact me for additional facts and also to solicit your concerns and questions at (760) 560-8077 or louslocum@gmail.com. I appreciate your vote.

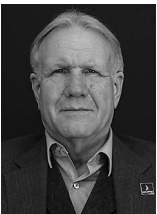

02 / PAUL EDNEY

Hello. The incumbent served sixteen years! Time for change. I believe I'm the best replacement - compare my IMDB credits. Also, I like to help people. Last August, I volunteered delivering food/supplies to needy Ukrainians near the war's front lines. Stateside during the pandemic, I chaired the Monthly Mixer. Through SAG-AFTRA, I arranged a meeting with the SD Film Office discussing attraction of productions. I took Central Casting's Harassment course enhancing my knowledge of working with women and the disabled on set. If elected, I'll be very active helping to secure jobs for members. Thank you for your vote. paul@pauledney.com
