

Guest Stars

TV/THEATRICAL/STREAMING

The following are key provision changes that impact Guest Star performers

- Producers are now required to provide a “soft work window” of five (5) days before or after the guaranteed period of employment.
- The major role performer provisions will apply to performers employed on 20–35 minute and 36–65 minute High Budget SVOD series and to the first season (and all subsequent seasons) of one-half hour and one-hour scripted dramatic television series shown during primetime on pay television.
- There are two (2) new forms of hiring for performers employed on episodic series and multipart, closed end pictures. These are Modified Deal Performers and Modified Guest Performers.
 - Modified Deal Performers are engaged at a rate of no less than $21,538 per episode and work time may not exceed 10 days.
 - Modified Guest Performers are engaged at a rate of no less than $14,000 per episode and work time may not exceed eight (8) days times the number of episodes or parts guaranteed within an overall production period, which may not exceed 23 days times the number of episodes or parts guaranteed.

Please note, the provisions regarding self-tape auditions and interviews for commercials may vary.
